As requested in your telephone call of 10 November, your Form 57 is enclosed herewith.

We have received an inquiry from Senator John Marshall Butler concerning your application for employment with us. We enclosed a duplicate of your Form 57 which we shall retain in our files.

Your interest in our organization is appreciated and we regret that our action on your application could not have been more favorable. If you should decide to take our tests again in a year, we shall be glad to make the necessary arrangements for you.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

E. D. Nichols
